HOSTILE CONTACTS

As Chairman of the Interagency Group/Counterintelligence (IG/CI), I would like to inform you that the IG/CI proposal to require Executive Branch employees to report certain contacts with nationals of hostile countries has undergone several drafting changes and is now in the form of a National Security Decision Directive. The current product is being distributed to IG/CI members on March 18, 1983, by the Secretariat and will be ready for final action at the next IG/CI meeting.

The IG/CI proposals will reach the Senior Interagency Group - Intelligence shortly thereafter.
